

Since we have placed our phone numbers on the Do Not Call list, we now have very few hangups on the answering machine, jarring phone calls at 8:00 a.m. on a Saturday and late into the evening during the week.

Telephone soliction is not the way to inform me about your business. If I am in the market for something, I will take the appropriate steps to research vendors and contact them according. Unwelcomed phone calls are exactly that and have the extreme opposite effect the phone solicitor was hoping for when dialing my number.

Please perserve the Do Not Call list. Our mailboxes, both home and email, are full of solictation noise, but that does not actively intrude on my life the way the incessant ringing of the phone does.

Thank you,
